Purpose:

At the January 14, 2026, meeting of the Minnehaha Creek Watershed District Citizens Advisory Committee (CAC), the CAC will elect its Executive Committee for the year. This memo outlines the process for electing the 2026 Executive Committee.

Background:

On July 22, 2021, the MCWD Board of Managers approved updates to the CAC Bylaws in Resolution 21-048. These bylaws, unanimously approved by CAC members on July 14, 2021, guide the function and operations of the CAC.

Article IV of the CAC Bylaws, "Committee Structure; Officers; and Operations," provides direction for the composition and election of the CAC Executive Committee.

- Section 2 (Officer elections) directs the annual election of officers by a quorum of CAC members by simple majority.
- Section 3 (Election procedures) notes that nominations for an officer position can occur through nomination by any member or self-nomination. All active members are eligible to vote for each candidate.
- Section 4 (Officers and duties) defines the composition of the Executive Committee and describes the positions of Chair, Vice Chair, and two Executive Officers.
 - Chair: Convenes regularly scheduled CAC meetings, presides or arranges for other officers to preside each meeting in the following order: Vice-Chair, then an executive officer.
 - Vice-Chair: Discharges the duties of the Chair if they are absent or disabled.
 - Executive Officers (2): Responsible for supporting the CAC at the request of the Chair or Vice-Chair.

The CAC Executive Committee meets ahead of each regular CAC meeting. Executive Committee members support and advise on meeting operations, new member on-boarding, recruitment, and other strategic initiatives as interest and needs arise.

January 14, 2026, CAC meeting:

At the January 14, 2026, CAC meeting, current Executive Committee members will speak to the duties of each position. CAC members may nominate themselves or another CAC member to any of the Executive Committee positions. Those who accept nomination will be asked to speak to their interest in serving on the Executive Committee.

The election will begin with Chair, then proceed to Vice-Chair, followed by the two executive officer positions. Results will be determined by simple majority of all members.
